Big Breakfast Day

Saturday 30th January 2010

9am to 10.30am

Across Oxford and Oxfordshire people will be gathering together in homes and halls to celebrate the love of Jesus Christ, to get to know neighbours and to pray for the area in which we live. If you'd like to keep informed, please register at www.streetprayer.org

Your nearest free Big Breakfast is at

Northway Evangelical Church, Sutton Road, Northway

You're welcome just to come along on the day, but if you want to be sure of getting some breakfast, please let us know you're coming on

'The streetprayer groups are doing a wonderful job in bringing people together, and celebrating what we have as a community. I was privileged to be invited to a prayer breakfast a few months ago and was struck by the warmth and peace of the meeting. As a local councillor, building strong communities is something I am passionate about.

The prayer breakfasts draw people together as neighbours and build up a sense of belonging in a spiritual way beyond denomination or religious politics. I hope that they will continue to grow and thrive'. - Lord Mayor Mary Clarkson

"All the believers were together ... They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God."
